

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XX.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1892.

NO. 82

WILLIAMSBURG, WHITLEY COUNTY.

—Col. F. F. Bobbitt, of Crab Orchard, is attending circuit court.

—Mr. Richard Kean has gone on a pleasant trip to Florida and other points in the South.

—Dr. Kidd, of Pine Knott, and John McCarty, of Jellico, Tenn., are here this week. J. M. Meadows was in Knoxville last week.

—Messrs. C. Z. Helder, Ed Taylor and Alex Sevier, men of the grip, have given us a call recently. Mr. T. L. Bird, of Middletown, spent Sunday with his mother.

—On last Friday evening the young ladies gave a leap year party at the home of Miss Carrie Myers. They met the young men at Col. O'Mara's and then proceeded to Miss Myers' where they spent a very pleasant evening.

—The new boarding hall that is being built by the Institute will be one of the nicest buildings in town. It is brick, 3 stories high and will accommodate about 100 young ladies. It will not be completed in time for this session.

—Circuit court convened last Monday morning with Judge Boyd present. There is a large docket and the judge wants to clear it up as much as possible for Judge Morrow. Col. Clark, Commonwealth's attorney, came Monday morning.

—Petitions are being circulated in some of the districts of this county to allow a vote to be taken for the sale of whisky. It will be a hard fought proposition as the better class of people are very much opposed to it and think it is bad enough as it is and would be much worse if it was sold in our midst.

—Mrs. Mattie Ford died at her home last Saturday evening at 6 o'clock, of consumption. She was in her 40th year and had been a member of the Christian church for about 15 years. Her funeral took place at the Christian church on Sunday at 2 o'clock. Eld. S. G. Sutton preaching the sermon, after which she was buried in the new cemetery across the river. Mrs. Ford was a sister-in-law of Dr. L. Sprout, who formerly lived in Lincoln county.

—Last Monday morning about 8 o'clock a murder of the foulest character was committed near Kensee Station, two miles this side of Jellico. Miss Melinda Bryant, a daughter of Mr. Frank Bryant, was outraged and murdered. Her throat was cut from ear to ear and her brains had been mashed out with a stone. She came to Sexton, the first station this side of Kensee, with her uncle, Joe Bryant, with whom she lived. He took the train to come to Williamsburg and she walked on toward Kensee alone where she was going to stay a few days with some friend. About 9 o'clock her body was found in a calvert, as described above, still warm. The officers were telegraphed for and went and arrested three men, but the evidence all tends to show that they are not the guilty parties. The excitement is very high here and it is probable if the party is caught and identified he will never reach the jail. Miss Bryant had just passed where Mrs. Rose was washing when a mulatto man came along, going in the same direction, and lit his pipe and the same pipe was found near the body. Mrs. Rose says she can identify the man if she can see him.

Hon. F. F. Bobbitt, who is attending Whitley court, favors us with a full account of the rape and murder committed in that county, which our regular correspondent had furnished, so the closing paragraph only of his letter is given:

"With such horrible outrages as this perpetrated in Kentucky and yet the Court of Appeals granting a new trial to such a bloody murderer as William McGraw, who was convicted at this place the last term of the criminal court here! The Court of Appeals seems to think it knows more about the case than we who tried it. The conviction of that man cost the Commonwealth $5,000. Now it is all to be repeated. Whenever the judges of the Court of Appeals grow so self-conceited that they think they know more criminal law than Judge Saufley, Col. Clark or Font Bobbitt they ought to have the expanding bud of their vanity nipped by the mordacious frost of severe criticism. No time to write more this time."

We dislike to dun our patrons, but when a man won't pay a just and over due debt without it, we surrender our conscientious scruples. The fact is there are too many delinquents on our list and they must pay up or their paper will be shut off. We are not running the concern for fun, was exasperatingly funny as it may seem. It takes over $100 a week, hard cash, to pay the expenses of this office and if you know you owe us, as you do if your label does not read 9 Dec.'92, come up or send up an honest man and help us liquidate.

This is intended for everybody in arrears. Cast your eye on your label and attend to the matter at once. We want the money you owe us like the woman did who kept hotel in Texas, and we must have it.

DANVILLE.

—Ed Drye was summoned before the police court Tuesday on the complaint of two colored women, who charged him with jostling them on the street and cursing them. Ed did not appear for trial and is thought to have flown to Hustonville, as he came from there. He was fined $12.

—Thomas Cecil, of this county, has been negotiating with A. G. Karsner for the purchase of the livery stable property on 4th street, opposite the Clemens House. They will meet again in Lexington, Monday, when if both parties remain in their present mood, the trade will probably be closed.

—Judge McFerran fined Uncle Bob Peppers $12 and costs Wednesday morning for defacing and injuring Minerva Whelan's property, which lies just across Clark's Run and out of the town limits. Bob said in extenuation of his offense that in the fair autumnal days just passed he had made arrangements with Minerva to reside with her during the winter, but coming home a few nights ago, he found that another gentleman had in utter disregard of his de facto marital rights insinuated himself into Minerva's affections and taken his (Bob's) place at the fireside, so to speak. Bob didn't like this, so he smashed a few window glass he had put in, jerked out a grate he had bought and set in the fire place and did other unseemly and indecorous acts against the peace, dignity, etc. Bob had no money to pay his fine, hence to the work-house.

—A man known as R. G. Cross was arrested here Tuesday and taken to Covington by L. E. Daniel, a deputy U. S. marshal from Mt. Sterling, charged with attempting to send mail matter through the Danville office by means of stamps that had once been used. Cross had been in Danville several weeks, attempting in a feeble way to work a patent right. He claimed to be from Georgia, where he said he had been in the insurance business rather extensively. He is about 50 years old and is said to have a family in the South. Hiram Van Pelt, the post-master's son, had noticed cancelled stamps on letters and papers dropped in the office for some time past and gave such information as led to a visit here Tuesday of Inspector S. D. Brown, of Parkland, and the deputy marshal mentioned, when the arrest followed. The penalty for the offense charged is imprisonment for not less than 12 months or a fine of from $100 to $500, or both fine and imprisonment.

—C. D. Portwood's clothing and furnishing store was entered Tuesday night from the rear, the thief or thieves boring a sufficient number of holes through the door panel to enable he, she or them to push out a block, leaving a hole through which an ordinary-sized man could crawl. Several hundred dollars' worth of fine shirts, shoes, overcoats, socks, neck ties, suspenders, gloves, etc., were taken, the thieves evidently being judges of such goods, and knowing their location in the store, as the commoner goods were left untouched. Sam King, a young man who clerks for Mr. Portwood, was first to discover the robbery when he opened the store Wednesday morning about 7 o'clock. Seeing the hole in the back door he at one re-locked the front door and notified Sheriff Bailey, who came without delay, and strange to relate, found the back door locked, which looks as though the thieves must not only have entered through the hole bored, but must have gone out with their planter the same way. This was not only inconvenient, but wholly unnecessary, as all they would have had to do when once inside, in order to get out without stooping, would have been to turn the key, which was in the door. A hat taken from the store was found about daylight Wednesday morning by Joe Williams near the freight depot. Williams went out with Batterson's freight wagons, was why he happened to be near the depot so early. He gave the hat to Jim Wilson, the street sprinkler, who brought it to Mr. Portwood, who identified it. No arrests.

HUBLEE.

—The wheel ran off our stage a few mornings ago and caused the team to run away, but no harm was done. Our good clever driver, who is always in the right place and in the right humor, soon got all under his control again.

—James Eubanks is fixing to move to Madison county about Jan. 1. He desires to rent his farm here for the coming season. We regret to give him and his excellent family up, and wish him success. S. Dunbar is in Russell county, among his many friends and relatives. Mrs. S. Hubble is up again, after a long illness.

—J. C. Eubanks sold his half interest in the home place for $6,340 to his brother, M. B. Eubanks, also his half interest in the stock on the farm. J. F. Kigney has been in the knobs buying hogs. G. P. Bright has sold his large work mules for $250. Ed White bought some 100-pound hogs at 5¢. Corn in abundance coming in at $2.

—Whisky has jumped up from $1.15 to $1.20.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—A little colored boy, the son of Bob Brown, died last Friday.

—Jake Bill has opened a new butcher shop down towards the depot.

—Several marriage licenses have been issued since the last of November.

—Dick Ward, of Lancaster, has sold his house here to Add Reese for $1,250.

—Frank Blankenship's little three-year-old boy was badly scald Sunday with a kettle of hot water.

—Dan Lovel took charge of the jail again, the last of circuit court, pursuant to a decision of the court of appeals respecting him.

—The democrats had a big time celebrating, a few fights, 600 torch lights, fire eating speeches and a regular good old time generally.

—Since my last letter, several weeks ago, many things have occurred worthy of mention, but I haven't been able to gather all of them up.

—That bad Craig Gragg was sent to the penitentiary for one year at the late circuit court for house breaking and Thos. White, colored, for stealing, got a similar sentence, but appealed. Grand jury returned 92 indictments, 18 of which were for concealed weapons, 36 for liquor, 4 for grand larceny and one for murder—Patton Whitley for killing Augustus Fogle, a woman, both colored.

—Mr. Ed Stapleton has taken charge of the Jackson House. Mr. McCall Fitzgerald has gone to Altamont as head book-keeper for the Altamont Coal Co., and Mr. E. C. Wians, of Richmond, has taken his place as drug clerk for the firm of W. H. Jackson & Co. W. C. Pittman has moved his drugs to Manchester, and is no longer a resident of London. R. M. Perman has secured a position as drummer for Green Hauffer & Co., and Humphrey Faris has a similar job with Carter Bros. & Co. Bud Graves has moved from his suburban residence into the Emory Faris building nearer his work with the London Manufacturing Co. Cortez Brown has moved out of his summer residence into one of John Chestnut's buildings and John Meece has come down from Cemetery Hill to be a neighbor of Cortez.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—E. T. Pence sold to Holdam & McClure 6 feeders at 3 cents.

—PINK COTTAGE.—For rent; five acres attached. Mrs. Mollie Wray.

—W. H. Taylor has bought about 200 barrels of corn at $2 delivered.

—A. F. Moherly sold to Prewitt & Wood a small lot of fat heifers at 2¢c.

—J. S. Owsley sold to Robinson, of Garrard, a bunch of fat heifers at 2¢c.

—At Richmond, Monday, 100 good cotton mules sold at $65 to $125.—Clip max.

—At San Francisco Jockey Ward was ruled off for life for pulling a horse in a race.

—It is said that the service fee of Ormonde, the stallion that was sold recently for $150,000, will be placed at $3,000.

—W. M. Lackey sold the 21 yearling mares, advertised in this paper, to Jerry Briscoe, at $60. All were mares but two.

—C. S. Brent & Bro., of Paris, shipped 500,000 pounds of turkeys East this season, the expressage alone amounting to over $5,000.

—Wm. Moreland bought of Dr. J. B. Owsley a bunch of feeders at 3¢; of Jeff Hill a lot of same at 3¢ and of Geo. Carter a lot at 3¢.

—Forestus Reid bought of L. B. Nunney, Wm. Beck and Ekd. J. Q. Montgomery about 200 barrels of corn delivered in crib at $2.

—The famous stallion Nelson and his owner, C. H. Nelson, ruled off the turf several years ago for alleged crookedness, have been reinstated.

—M. F. Elkin bought of Powell, who lives on Dix river, a lot of 200-lb. hogs at 5¢; of Tom Douglas and John Murphy a lot of butcher stuff at 2¢.

—Stanford's Palo Alto ranch embraces more than 8,000 acres of land, on which there are 1,200 head of horses and every appliance for horse culture that experience can suggest and money procure.

—Export steers sell in Cincinnati at 4.65 to 4.1, fairs to extra shippers 4 to 4.60, select butchers 3½ to 4; hogs continue to advance with tops at 6.35; wethers bring 4½ to 5 and fat ewes 4 to 4½.

—Gill Cowan sold to Fox for John D. Harris 25 cattle, averaging 1,198 lbs., at 3½ and 5,100 pounds at 3½. John M. Reid weighed to Embry for same 7 cattle of 1,242 pounds at 4 and one 1,185-pound at 3½.

—The people of this country are great consumers of poultry and eggs. In 1891 the poultry products of the United States exceeded $200,000,000 in value, while 16,000,000 dozen eggs were imported. Poultry farming offers great opportunities.

—E. B. Dooley bought last week in Woodford county 85 feeding steers, of 1,100 pounds weight, at 3½c. W. B. Kidd bought 16 cattle, weight 1,700 pounds, to be delivered Dec. 15, at 4½c. Wm. Wade sold to Wm. Green 30 100-pound shoats, to be taken Feb. 5, at 5c.—Winchester Democrat.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Mr. Wm. Ward has purchased of J. A. Royston his stock of goods and coal yard near the depot.

—Benge & Hamilton are erecting a building near their livery stable to be used as a butcher shop.

—Prof. Meister was delayed in getting the fixtures for his oven, but they have arrived and he will bake Saturday morning.

—Next Sunday night the union services will be held at the Methodist church at which time the presiding elder of that church will preach.

—Mr. W. B. Mason has commenced taking depositions in his contest with Mr. Broadus for the circuit clerkship. Mr. Mason is represented by Col. Welch of Stanford, and Mr. Broadus by Capt. Herndon. Letcher Owles is acting as the examiner.

—The democrats had a big time celebrating, a few fights, 600 torch lights, fire eating speeches and a regular good old time generally.

—Mrs. C. W. Sweeney has returned from Louisville. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Smith, who will make her a visit. Miss Pattie Beasley is visiting in Danville. Miss Maud Robinson, who has been quite ill for several days, is improving. Miss Alford, who has been the guest of Miss Patsy Beasley, has returned to her home at Lexington. Col. Wm. Glass, of Lower Garrison, was in town Wednesday.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—It is said that Corbett's wife will sue for divorce, naming Mrs. Hattie Clark, of Minneapolis, as co-respondent.

—Miss Rosa Welsh, a Cincinnati girl, has sued William Stribley, of the same city for $35,000 for breaking his promise to marry her.

—Henrietta Steele, aged 16, a disappointed lover, suicided at Ft. Wayne, Ind., by taking arsenic. This was her third attempt at self-murder.

—John F. Russell, a prosperous young farmer near Junction City, and Miss Maggie Buchanan, a pretty lassie of Millicedeille, were married yesterday at the bride's father's.

—Agnes Lambright escaped from a Cincinnati convent and wedded Mikey Hogan, a fourth class pugilist, 15 hours after she had met him. She is of a good family at Ulricksburg, Ohio.

—Miss Cleopatra Tevis, daughter of Noah Tevis, of Waco, Madison county, is as fickle as she is fair. She started to run off and marry William Witt, but in his temporary absence Robert Combs, a former and more favored lover, came along and asking her to fly with him, she flew, leaving poor little Willie to mourn the capriciousness of a woman's mind.

—Owing to the recent bereavement, the postponed marriage of Mr. R. R. Gentry to Miss Louana Duddar was quietly solemnized at the residence of the late Lewis Duddar Tuesday at 3 p. m. by Rev. John Bell Gibson, only a few intimate friends being present. Immediately after the ceremony they went to Mr. Gentry's home. The groom, who is deservedly held in high esteem, is to be congratulated on securing one who will in every way prove a helpmeet. It took some time to concentrate his affections, but, as in business and politics, he showed his good sense at last.

—George W. Arnold, of Virginia, and Miss Cecilia Nein, of Cleveland, O., met by arrangement in the pension building, Washington, Tuesday, and were married, though they had never seen each other an hour before. In some way they began to correspond and that led up to the romantic marriage in a building which never saw such a knot tied before. As he was past 50 and her way of life had fallen into the rear—the yellow lead—in other words old maidhood had long claimed her for its own, it is rather strange that so much romance was left in their lives, but then of all the fools old fools are said to be the greatest.

—M. F. Elkin bought of Powell, who lives on Dix river, a lot of 200-lb. hogs at 5¢; of Tom Douglas and John Murphy a lot of butcher stuff at 2¢.

—Stanford's Palo Alto ranch embraces more than 8,000 acres of land, on which there are 1,200 head of horses and every appliance for horse culture that experience can suggest and money procure.

—Export steers sell in Cincinnati at 4.65 to 4.1, fairs to extra shippers 4 to 4.60, select butchers 3½ to 4; hogs continue to advance with tops at 6.35; wethers bring 4½ to 5 and fat ewes 4 to 4½.

—Gill Cowan sold to Fox for John D. Harris 25 cattle, averaging 1,198 lbs., at 3½ and 5,100 pounds at 3½. John M. Reid weighed to Embry for same 7 cattle of 1,242 pounds at 4 and one 1,185-pound at 3½.

—The people of this country are great consumers of poultry and eggs. In 1891 the poultry products of the United States exceeded $200,000,000 in value, while 16,000,000 dozen eggs were imported. Poultry farming offers great opportunities.

—E. B. Dooley bought last week in Woodford county 85 feeding steers, of 1,100 pounds weight, at 3½c. W. B. Kidd bought 16 cattle, weight 1,700 pounds, to be delivered Dec. 15, at 4½c. Wm. Wade sold to Wm. Green 30 100-pound shoats, to be taken Feb. 5, at 5c.—Winchester Democrat.

Biela's Comet Has Come

—And gone, but here comes

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., DECEMBER 9, 1892

W. P. WALTON.

SIX : PAGES. EVERY FRIDAY.

GOV. McCREEARY made a speech before the Monetary Conference at Brussels, Belgium, Tuesday, in which he stated the propositions favored by America. He opposed the plans of the Rothschilds and pronounced the existing financial situation as full of perils and asserted that some remedy was absolutely necessary. Closing the governor said: "I believe the best aim of the conference to be the general remonetization of silver and the unrestricted coinage of gold and silver into money of debt-paying power, with a permanent international ratio of 15 to 1 or 16 to 1, and I prefer the latter. This, in my opinion, is a system that would give unity and stability to the value of money, and would furnish the best remedy for the existing evils, from which all civilized nations are suffering." The governor's position seems the only tenable one and his speech has been greatly complimented both on this and the other side of the ocean.

No matter how poor a judge has proved himself, as a man or as a jurist, the silly business of a bar meeting is held about the time his term closes and eloquent resolutions are adopted. We happen to know how insincere these performances are, but it works all the same, except in the case of Judge Ira Julian, whose reticence from the bench was to be celebrated in this chestnut way. The Frankfort Capital says, "When the master came to his knowledge, he put a stop to it on the ground that a judicial officer should not accept rewards for merely doing his duty. All honor to Judge Julian for this manly stand in favor of right, propriety and justice."

TEXAS is a great State whether size, politics or products is considered. She has enough territory to make five States nearly as large each as Kentucky, while Delaware and Rhode Island could be hid in a couple of counties. She can give a democratic majority anywhere from 150,000 to 250,000 and her crops this year will put in the pockets of her people $70,000,000 for cotton and $20,000,000 more for breadstuffs, or $40 for each inhabitant of the Commonwealth. The sobriquet of Lone Star State should be changed to the big, bright, particular star in the constellation of States.

MR. ARNOLD had hardly gotten his presses and type unloaded till his new town, Alexandria, Ind., caught fire and the business portion was consumed. Well wager, however, that Tommy lit on his feet and if there was a hop anywhere in town that night he used them in the dreamy waltz. When the little Tom Tit dons his spade tail, parts his hair in the middle and begins his conquests of the fair sex, it matters little with him whether school keeps or not or whether everything else burns except the house in which the dance is held.

PRESIDENT HARRISON's last message—but who cares to hear a corpse talk. If there be such a man, he can send us a postal, expressing his desire, and we will promptly mail him a copy of the document, which occupies over a dozen pages, and contains nothing that is new or startling. We had to read it as a matter of business, but if the Lord in His gracious goodness will forgive us this time, we think we can promise Him in all sincerity that we will never have to read another message from another republican president.

THE awful spectacle of four men dangling from their necks from one scaffold will be witnessed in Louisville this morning about sunrise. Each has committed a foul murder and each deserves his ignoble fate. The good work should proceed. There have been 42 murders in Louisville this year and only one hanging for every 10 or more murders is not reassuring to the citizens.

THE Corbin Enterprise has turned its little toes to the daisies and sleeps the sleep that knows no awaking. Editor Chesnut works the old chestnut that he has more important business that demands his attention, but the real reason of his throwing up the sponge is that the institution didn't pay. A republican-prohibition paper couldn't be expected to live in Kentucky.

The bolters, ably reinforced by the republicans, "knocked the socks off" the regularly nominated democratic candidates for municipal offices in Louisville, Tuesday, electing nearly every one of their men. The people seem to have arisen and protested against John Whalen running politics on the same plan he runs his leg-show theatre.

In the mad rush for the spoils, there be few indeed who think old man Addison had any intellect left when he penned the line, "The post of honor is the private station."

THE Covington Commonwealth thinks that as no one ever accused Jay Gould of having a soul, there need be no fears for his future.

WHILE Squire Riley was acting county judge in the absence of Judge Bullock, he ordered that the clock on the courthouse at Lexington be turned back to railroad time. Judge Bullock returned and calling the magistrates together, he asked them whether the time of God Almighty or that of the grasping, grinding railroads should prevail so far as Fayette is concerned. With one accord they answered and said, "Let us stick to the time the Lord has arranged," and thereupon the hands of the clock on the steeple were turned forward 20 minutes. There need be no trouble about solar time and railroad time. The former better divides the day for the working man and farmer and enables him to do his work by the light of the sun without resort to artificial lighting. As a great many more people stay at home than ride on railroads the former are much more entitled to consideration. Then if a man goes to the depot by solar time, he'll never get left, in this State, at least.

IT behooves the democrats in Congress to do everything in decency and in order, but they will be recreant to the trust imposed in them if they do not at the very earliest date possible reform the tariff laws to a revenue basis, purge and purify the pension list and knock out every semblance of a force bill that has been or may be devised.

THE Whitley Advocate asks, "Will we have whisky or not?" The invitation may not be extended to us, but if it is, we will have to submit that we never take anything heavier than champagne.

THE Winchester Democrat has donned a new dress and is as pretty as the flowers that bloom in the spring.

THE LEGISLATURE.

—Mr. Combest, of Casey, has sent up his first bill. It proposes a heavy license against dealers in pistols and cartridges.

—The House passed the bill fixing the salary of the State treasurer at $3,600 and reducing the salary of his clerk to $1,200.

—The House passed a bill which prohibits cattle and other live stock from running at large upon the highways of the Commonwealth.

—The Legislature has provided for another sinecure—the office of assistant mine inspector—and somebody is to get a big salary for doing nothing.

—There is much objection raised among the lawyers to the way the dates of the courts in this district have been fixed and there will be an effort to have it changed, especially as to Garrard. Nobody wants to be bothered with an August court.

NEWSY NOTES.

—You can register a letter for 8 cents after New Year.

—The final count divides the electoral vote of North Dakota, Harrison having 2 and Weaver 1.

—Joe Walton, the millionaire coal operator, widely known along the Ohio Valley, is dead.

—A Marion county jury gave A. P. Richetts $9,000 against the L & N., for crushing his arm.

—Jay Gould once wrote a book, but afterward bought up every copy and destroyed the edition.

—At Scottsville Sunday night George Griggs was stabbed to death in his stable by an unknown man.

—Jack Fields was hanged at Wharton, Tex. His head was jerked from his body by the fall of eight feet.

—Lehman Uhlman, a wealthy merchant of Pittsburg, killed himself because of his insatiable appetite for tobacco.

—The entire business portion of Cumberland Gap was destroyed by fire a few nights ago. Loss $35,000; insurance $10,000.

—Near San Antonio, Tex., the rainmakers bombarded the sky for eight hours without producing the desired effect.

—At Scranton, Pa., Elm Park Methodist Episcopal church, just completed at a cost of $200,000, was burned to the ground.

—The composing room of the Public Ledger building, at Philadelphia, was burned. The loss by fire and water is estimated at $250,000.

—Of the 2,570 persons shipwrecked on our coast last year only 20 perished. This simple fact is an eloquent eulogy of the American life-saving service.

—Mrs. Susan Curd, mother of Mrs. J. Q. Marimon, dropped dead at Harrodsburg, aged 90. Mrs. Marimon lost her husband in the same way.

—The corporation of the Adams Express Company expires in two years and the company will be asked to decide whether it shall be reorganized.

—The managers of the Word's Fair are already at work at Washington for the repeal of the Sunday closing provision of the act passed last session.

—Democrats made a clean sweep at Owego with their ticket for municipal offices. The republicans had a full ticket for the first time in many years.

—Edward Hollinger was sentenced to death at Jersey City, N. J., for the fourth time. His neck has been resorted on three different occasions. He killed his wife.

—During the performance of "Ole Olson" at the People's Theatre, in Evansville, Ind., Constable Ben Morris shot and killed Jake Wolf, the keeper of a road-house.

—The secretary of the interior recommends an increase of the whisky tax to meet the deficiency in the treasury.

—The Falls of Rough railroad has raised money on a mortgage and the road will soon be completed between Middlesboro and Owensboro.

—The Winchester and Beattyville railroad was practically completed this week. The event was celebrated in happy style by the people at Beattyville.

—At Seattle, Wash., Tuesday night Charles Rogers Moulton shot and killed Mrs. Mary S. Storey because she refused to marry him. He then committed suicide.

—A severe blizzard is prevailing in Kansas and Nebraska. Railroad traffic is impeded by heavy drifts and in Omaha and Atchison the street car lines are snowed up.

—Jacob Gerber, a Russian Jew, of Omaha, Neb., who was arrested and sentenced to Siberia for 15 years by the Russian government, has escaped and is back in Omaha.

—But few women value their sweethearts so highly as the one in New York who has sued the Central railroad for $40,000 for killing hers. She deserves to get every cent.

—At Chicago Judge Walter Q. Gresham delivered an opinion which the railroad lawyers regard as a virtual declaration of the unconstitutionality of the interstate commerce act.

—On reading a letter from her little son, in which were these words: "Pray for yourself first, dear mother, and then pray for me," a woman in a Louisville brothel took morphine and died.

—Paul Kabash, a Pole, was scalded to death in a vat at a Wabash, Ind., hat factory in September. When the news reached his aged mother in Poland a few days ago she dropped dead.

—Meredith Stanley, a bridge jumper, leaped from each of the five bridges that span the Ohio, at Cincinnati, down into the chilly waters below in the remarkable time of one hour and 20 minutes.

—Senator Hill has introduced a bill in the Senate to repeal the present silver purchase act, known as the Sherman law. Another bill with the same object was introduced in the House by Representative Williams.

—The presidential electors for the State met at Frankfort and cast their votes for Cleveland and Stevenson, and elected Capt. F. C. Riddle, of Bourbon county, messenger to take the official vote of the State to Washington.

—The Bessemer Steel Works, at Pueblo, Colo., opened in full blast Nov. 28. Over 1,000 men are now at work. This is more than the number employed there at any previous time. Cleveland's election doesn't seem to have scared the business men to any great extent.

—The dead letter office has received this year 557,646 domestic unanswerable letters, of which 994 contained unanswerable articles; 95,449 were held for postage, 49,914 were misdirected, 32,612 were wholly without address and 2,677 were of miscellaneous character.

—It was too bad, as the ladies say, that Oliver Redd, after hustling around over since the election and obtaining several hundred signatures to his petition for the post-office at Lexington, should have his house to burn down, and with it the precious document.

—The caucus of republican Senators at Washington discussed the two bills for the admission of Arizona and New Mexico. There are some of them who thought it would be good policy to have these Territories admitted under a republican administration.

—The purchase of nearly all the street railway lines in New Orleans has been completed for a large syndicate by the New York banking firm of J. & W. Seligman & Co. The price paid was $10,000,000. A number of Louisville men are interested in the syndicate.

—The wholesale firm of L. & N. Wilczynski, at Greenville, Miss., failed, with liabilities $400,000. The failure of this firm caused three others, with which it was connected, to go down also. It is the heaviest commercial crash ever occurring in the Yazoo-Mississippi delta.

—The purchase of nearly all the street railway lines in New Orleans has been completed for a large syndicate by the New York banking firm of J. & W. Seligman & Co. The price paid was $10,000,000. A number of Louisville men are interested in the syndicate.

—The wholesale firm of L. & N. Wilczynski, at Greenville, Miss., failed, with liabilities $400,000. The failure of this firm caused three others, with which it was connected, to go down also. It is the heaviest commercial crash ever occurring in the Yazoo-Mississippi delta.

—The will and codicils of the late Jay Gould provide that the estate shall be divided equally among his six children, after the payment of $5,000,000 to his son, George J. Gould, for 12 years' service; $25,000 in cash to each of his sisters and his brother and $2,000 annually and $50,000 in trust for his grand-son and namesake.

—Sheriff W. H. Beller, of Mason county, who was lost in the Yew Pine mountains, West Va., nearly three weeks ago and was given up dead, was found alive by a party of hunters on Cherry River. He had existed for 19 days on one pheasant and one mouse, and was nearly famished when found.

—Mrs. Caldwell, wife of the late editor of the Lexington Transcript, denies that her husband ever made any will, but the one she presents, and says the Masons are conspiring against her. She says that Maj. Caldwell never had any money to will in the first place, as she loaned all he had to him and that he could not have legally willed any of it to his daughter if he had desired to do so.

—The managers of the Word's Fair are already at work at Washington for the repeal of the Sunday closing provision of the act passed last session.

—Democrats made a clean sweep at Owego with their ticket for municipal offices. The republicans had a full ticket for the first time in many years.

—Edward Hollinger was sentenced to death at Jersey City, N. J., for the fourth time. His neck has been resorted on three different occasions. He killed his wife.

—During the performance of "Ole Olson" at the People's Theatre, in Evansville, Ind., Constable Ben Morris shot and killed Jake Wolf, the keeper of a road-house.

Do You Need a New Cloak?

Certainly you do, when you can when you can buy a Full

Fur-Trimmed Jackets in Blacks and Tan at Only $5

These garments were worth $9, but we closed out the lot and what few we have left go at the above price. Just think of this:

An All Wool Black Jersey Jacket $2.

Don't put it off till too late.

You Say You Want a New Overcoat.

Alright; take your choice, from $2.75 for Men's Overcoat to $15. Every one worth from $2 to $5 a piece more. We propose to sell you goods for less than other merchants buy them, for we will never be undersold. Every-

BLANKETS, COMFORTS, UNDERWEAR and SHOES

Marked down to prices that will astonish you.

THE : LOUISVILLE : STORE.

DISSOLUTION NOTICE.

Having dissolved partnership, we are very desirous of settling our old business, and all creditors indebted to H. K. & W. H. WEAREN will find their accounts with W. H. WEAREN & CO. at the same place of business. Please call and settle.

B. K. & W. H. WEAREN.

WE ARE

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE!

Heating Stoves, Stove Pipe, Zinc, Coal Vases, Coal Hods, Shovels Tongs and Pokers.

Enterprise and Hale's Meat Cutters, Lard Cans, Butcher Knives and Carving Sets. We want

COUNTRY PRODUCE

And always pay the highest price. Give us a call.

MCKINNEY BROS.

DANKS

THE JEWELER,

Articles to Suit the Most Fastidious.

A complete line of

Watches, Clocks

Jewelry

And SILVERWARE.

Complicated Watch Repairs and Artistic Engraving a Specialty.

All goods sold engraved free of charge.

Your patronage respectfully solicited.

TO THE PEOPLE OF.....

HUSTONVILLE

AND VICINITY.

I am offering you a

A Great Bankrupt Stock,

OF.....

BOOTS AND SHOES

For men, ladies and children. Also

Hats, Caps, Clothing

And.....

GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS.

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

GIFTS MADE AT HOME

STANFORD, KY., DECEMBER 9, 1892

R. C. WALTON, Bus. Manager

Two Unusually Good Offers.

REAL CHRISTMAS GIFTS.

First—The great Holiday Number (enlarged to 250 pages) of that brightest of quarterly publications,

"TALES FROM TOWN TOPICS."

Out December 1st, all news and book stands and railway trains, price 50 cents, will be sent

FREE

To all who send $1 for three months' trial subscription to

TOWN TOPICS.

The largest, liveliest, strongest, most varied and interesting weekly journal in the world.

Second—To all who will send $5 will be sent Town Topics and "Tales from Town Topics" from date until January 1, 1893, covering 5 Nos. of the inimitable quarterly (regular price $2 50) and 12 numbers of the greatest of family weeklies, regular price $1 50.

Take one or the other offer at once, and remit in postal notes, orders or New York Exchange to

TOWN TOPICS,

21 West 2d Street, New York

CHESAPEAKE & OHIO RAILWAY.

Washington, Philadelphia Baltimore, New York,

And all other Eastern Cities.

Shortest Line between Louisville Lexington and Eastern Points.

IN EFFECT NOV. 1, 1892.

EST. BOUND. Lvs. Lexington
Atlantic Express No. 22, daily..... 7 a.m.
Midland Accommodation, No. 26, ex. Sun. 11:40 a.m.
Westbound Express, No. 24, daily..... 6 p.m.
Mt. Sterling Account, No. 28, ex. Sun..... 5:25 p.m.

WEST BOUND. Arr. Lexington: 9:30 a.m.
Lexington Account, No. 27, ex. Sun..... 7:30 a.m.
Westbound Express, No. 21, daily..... 10:30 a.m.
Lexington Account, No. 29, ex. Sun..... 4:30 p.m.
Westbound Express No. 23, daily..... 6:00 p.m.

Solid Westbound Trains with Dining Cars. No butcheries. Through Sleepers from Lexington without change.

H. W. FULLER, C. E. RYAN,
Gen. Pass. Agt., Ass't Gen. Pass. Agt.,
Washington, D. C. Cincinnati,
OSCAR G. MURRAY, Traffic Manager.

N & W Norfolk & Western R.R.

Schedule Oct. 30, 1892.

LEAVE NORTON DAILY

2:30 p.m. for Graham, Bluefield, Pocahontas and intermediate stations; also Bluefield, Radford, Roanoke, and Lynchburg, Richmond and Norfolk. Also (via Roanoke) to Washington, Hagerstown, Harrisburg, Philadelphia and New York.

Pullman Sleeping Cars from Louisville to Norton and Radford; also Radford to Elkhorn and Shreveport Junction, also Radford to Washington; also from Lynchburg to Richmond.

Trains for Pocahontas, Powhatan and Goodwill leave Norton daily at 6:30 a.m., 5:30 p.m., 2:30 p.m. and 11:30 p.m.

Leave Bluefield 6:10 a.m. daily for Kenova and Columbus, O., Arrive Columbus 2:25 p.m.

Additional train for Welch and intermediate stations on Elk horn leave Bluefield 2:30 p.m. daily, returning from the East daily at 12:30 p.m. and 5:30 p.m.

For further information as to schedules, rates, &c., apply to agents of Norfolk & Western Railroad or to W. B. BEVELL, Gen. Pass. Agt. Roanoke, Va.

TAKE THE...

MONON ROUTE

LOUISVILLE NEW ALBANY & CHICAGO RT.

THE WORLD'S FAIR

LINE TO...

CHICAGO,

And...

ALL POINTS WEST

And...

NORTH - WEST.

Fine and best ventilated Buffet Sleeping Cars and Parlor Cars on all trains.

No change of cars, best accommodations, quick time and lowest rates.

For information address JAS. BARKER, G. P. A., Chicago, W. G. CRUSH, D. P. A., Louisville.

XOZIEVILLE, Cumberland Gap & Louisville R. R.

Double Daily Schedule, In Effect July 17, 1892.

Dly 52
A. M. P. M.
8:30 6:30
8:45 6:50
8:50 7:05
9:11 7:31
9:31 7:35
9:49 7:47
10:03 7:59
10:18 8:12
10:32 8:26
10:37 8:31
10:42 8:42
10:47 8:57
10:52 9:05
10:57 9:42
10:59 9:50
11:48 9:36
11:57 9:47
12:03 9:50
12:07 9:55
12:16 10:05
12:20 10:10

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

27

28

29

30

31

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

27

28

29

30

31

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

27

28

29

30

31

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

27

28

29

30

31

1

2

3

4

5

6

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY AND FRIDAY
—AT—
$2 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE.
—When not so paid $2.50 will be charged.—

A CREAM OF TARTER BAKING POWDER. Highest in Leavening Strength—Latest United States Government Food Report.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO.,
16 Wall street, New York.

K. G. LOCAL TIME CARD.

Train leaves Rowland at 7:00 a. m., returning at 5:20 p. m.

L. & N. LOCAL TIME CARD.

Main train going North..... 12:40 p.m.
" " South..... 1:25 p.m.
Express train " South..... 1:55 p.m.
" " North..... 3:00 a.m.
Local Freight " South..... 7:55 a.m.
" " 4:45 p.m.

The latter trains also carry passengers.

The above is calculated on standard time. Solar time is about 30 minutes faster.

QUEEN & CRESCENT ROUTE.

Trains pass Junction City as follows:
South-bound—Q. & C. Special 12:35 a. m.; Fast Mail 1:15 p. m.; New Orleans Limited 3:30 p. m.; Blue Grass Special 8:40 p. m.
North-bound—Q. & C. Special 1:05 a. m.; Blue Grass Special 6:00 a. m.; Cincinnati Limited 3:20 p. m.; Fast Mail 12:55 p. m.

LAND FOR SALE.

Forty Acres of Land, 4 miles South of Stanford, half cleared, balance in timber, good orchard, two never failing springs, and a small house.
G. T. McROBERTS,
59ff

Falls Branch Jellico Coal Co.

Miners and shippers of the GENUINE

Original Jellico Coal.

Try it. We are the sole agents for Stanford and Rowland. Office corner of Depot street and railroad crossing.

HIGGINS & WATTS.

J. H. HILTON

ROWLAND, KY.

DEALER IN CROCHETES, HARDWARE,

Boots and Shoes, Cigars and Tobacco, Ohio River Boats, by barrel and case, and coal.

I am also agent for the old Reliable Brothod Tobacco and will keep a full line of these goods in stock, and all I ask of the merchants of Stanford and Rowland is to give me their orders and I will take the goods to market.

Factories open.

Thanking the public for liberal patronage, I ask a continuance of same, and remain your obedient servant.

57-yr J. H. HILTON,

AUSTIN & BOWELL,

STANFORD, KY.

House, Sign, Decorative Painter and Paper Hanger.

Country work solicited. Estimates furnished.

52-3m

I. M. BRUCE. J. H. YEAGER

BRUCE & YEAGER,

LIVERY, FEED AND SALE STABLE

STANFORD, KY.

The above firm went into effect July 1st and the specify a re-patronage of the public.

NEW RIGS AND HORSES

Have been purchased and nothing but first-class

turkeys will leave the stable.

Give them a Call.

MYERS HOUSE

LIVERY STABLE

P. W. GREEN, Prop.

This stable, which is run in connection with the well-known Myers House, has been supplied with

A NEW Lot of Horses, Carriages, Buggies, Wagons,

an' Farmer's Supplies and is better than ever prepares supply the public with

FIRST-CLASS RIGS OF ALL KINDS.

Personal and prompt attention given to Weddings, Parties and Burials.

P. W. GREEN, Proprietor.

A. L. BURNS, Manager.

THE COFFEY HOUSE

STANFORD, KY.

JOSEPH COFFEY, Prop'r.

This Hotel, renovated and re-furnished, is now in my charge and I intend to conduct it so as to not only maintain its high reputation, but to add to its long list of friends. Special accommodations for commercial travelers and fine rooms for the display of samples.

A First-Class Saloon!

And BILLIARD and POOL ROOMS attached.

37-11 JOSEPH COFFEY.

CASH!

Highest cash market price paid for

Beef Hides, Fur, Tallow,

&c., at

M. F. ELKIN & CO.,

STANFORD, KY.

"I PRAY FOR YOU."

The future may be dreary,
And bring me toil and pain;
My heart may be weary,
But when the darkest hours appear
My heart will turn to thee,
And cast away its doubt and fear,
For you will pray for me!

The friends I love may leave me,
Be called away by death;
Or even may deceive me—
Prove false as fleeting breath;
But you will never wound my heart,
Never prove untrue,
For ever to my memory start
The words, "I pray for thee."

My life may have its pleasures,
Its bright and happy hours,
When earth will bring her treasures,
And strew my path with flowers;
But nothing can such joy afford
As once my spirit knew,
When sitting by your side, I heard
Those words, "I pray for thee."

When on life's stormy ocean
The billows round me rise,
In fierce and wild commotion,
And hope of succor flies,
My heart with all its thoughts extend
Across that raging sea,
Until they cling around the one
Who said, "I pray for thee."

Oh, may those prayers attend me
Through every scene of life!
From evil to defend me—
To be my shield in strife,
And when the life long fight is o'er,
The imprisoned spirit free,
Upon that bright, celestial shore
May you still pray for me.

SONG OF STANFORD.

When it was thought that there would be a grand celebration in Stanford on the occasion of the turning on of the water and electricity, Mr. Warren, of the Model Grocery, prepared the following, which considering the fact that his business calls more for a study of Irish potatoes, mackerel and saur kraut than a happy dalliance with the Muses, is a production of more than ordinary merit:

BY A. A. WARREN.

In the bottom of Kentucky,
Far from the "deep blue sea,"
There stands a little city,
Where dwell the fair and free,
It's not a great metropolis,
It's not a mush-room town,
It supplies the wants of people
For many miles around.

It's approached by numerous turnpikes
From towns both near and far,
Which were used by hostile armies
In the late great civil war.

It has hills and dales around it,
Near are fields of ripening grain,
Which were raised by honest toilers,
Helped by sunshine, winds and rain.

It's not a great metropolis,

It's not a mush-room town,
It supplies the wants of people
For many miles around.

It's approached by numerous turnpikes
From towns both near and far,
Which were used by hostile armies
In the late great civil war.

It has hills and dales around it,
Near are fields of ripening grain,
Which were raised by honest toilers,
Helped by sunshine, winds and rain.

It's not a great metropolis,

It's not a mush-room town,
It supplies the wants of people
For many miles around.

It's approached by numerous turnpikes
From towns both near and far,
Which were used by hostile armies
In the late great civil war.

It has hills and dales around it,
Near are fields of ripening grain,
Which were raised by honest toilers,
Helped by sunshine, winds and rain.

It's not a great metropolis,

It's not a mush-room town,
It supplies the wants of people
For many miles around.

It's approached by numerous turnpikes
From towns both near and far,
Which were used by hostile armies
In the late great civil war.

It has hills and dales around it,
Near are fields of ripening grain,
Which were raised by honest toilers,
Helped by sunshine, winds and rain.

It's not a great metropolis,

It's not a mush-room town,
It supplies the wants of people
For many miles around.

It's approached by numerous turnpikes
From towns both near and far,
Which were used by hostile armies
In the late great civil war.

It has hills and dales around it,
Near are fields of ripening grain,
Which were raised by honest toilers,
Helped by sunshine, winds and rain.

It's not a great metropolis,

It's not a mush-room town,
It supplies the wants of people
For many miles around.

It's approached by numerous turnpikes
From towns both near and far,
Which were used by hostile armies
In the late great civil war.

It has hills and dales around it,
Near are fields of ripening grain,
Which were raised by honest toilers,
Helped by sunshine, winds and rain.

It's not a great metropolis,

It's not a mush-room town,
It supplies the wants of people
For many miles around.

It's approached by numerous turnpikes
From towns both near and far,
Which were used by hostile armies
In the late great civil war.

It has hills and dales around it,
Near are fields of ripening grain,
Which were raised by honest toilers,
Helped by sunshine, winds and rain.

It's not a great metropolis,

It's not a mush-room town,
It supplies the wants of people
For many miles around.

It's approached by numerous turnpikes
From towns both near and far,
Which were used by hostile armies
In the late great civil war.

It has hills and dales around it,
Near are fields of ripening grain,
Which were raised by honest toilers,
Helped by sunshine, winds and rain.

It's not a great metropolis,

It's not a mush-room town,
It supplies the wants of people
For many miles around.

It's approached by numerous turnpikes
From towns both near and far,
Which were used by hostile armies
In the late great civil war.

It has hills and dales around it,
Near are fields of ripening grain,
Which were raised by honest toilers,
Helped by sunshine, winds and rain.

It's not a great metropolis,

It's not a mush-room town,
It supplies the wants of people
For many miles around.

It's approached by numerous turnpikes
From towns both near and far,
Which were used by hostile armies
In the late great civil war.

It has hills and dales around it,
Near are fields of ripening grain,
Which were raised by honest toilers,
Helped by sunshine, winds and rain.

It's not a great metropolis,

It's not a mush-room town,
It supplies the wants of people
For many miles around.

It's approached by numerous turnpikes
From towns both near and far,
Which were used by hostile armies
In the late great civil war.

It has hills and dales around it,
Near are fields of ripening grain,
Which were raised by honest toilers,
Helped by sunshine, winds and rain.

It's not a great metropolis,

It's not a mush-room town,
It supplies the wants of people
For many miles around.

It's approached by numerous turnpikes
From towns both near and far,
Which were used by hostile armies
In the late great civil war.

It has hills and dales around it,
Near are fields of ripening grain,
Which were raised by honest toilers,
Helped by sunshine, winds and rain.

It's not a great metropolis,

It's not a mush-room town,
It supplies the wants of people
For many miles around.

It's approached by numerous turnpikes
From towns both near and far,
Which were used by hostile armies
In the late great civil war.

It has hills and dales around it,
Near are fields of ripening grain,
Which were raised by honest toilers,
Helped by sunshine, winds and rain.

It's not a great metropolis,

It's not a mush-room town,
It supplies the wants of people
For many miles around.

It's approached by numerous turnpikes
From towns both near and far,
Which were used by hostile armies
In the late great civil war.

It has hills and dales around it,
Near are fields of ripening grain,
Which were raised by honest toilers,
Helped by sunshine, winds and rain.

It's not a great metropolis,

It's not a mush-room town,
It supplies the wants of people
For many miles around.

It's approached by numerous turnpikes
From towns both near and far,
Which were used by hostile armies
In the late great civil war.

It has hills and dales around it,
Near are fields of ripening grain,
Which were raised by honest toilers,
Helped by sunshine, winds and rain.

It's not a great metropolis,

It's not a mush